Dear Parishioner,

Today is Twenty Third Sunday of the Ordinary time.

As the schools went back this week, we pray and support our children, parents and staff of any anxieties they may have around their return to the school. Congratulations to the authorities, educators, parents, staff and everyone concerned for taking a strong step to keep the education of our children on a priority level amidst the threat of Corona pandemic.

We are in the season of Creation until October 4th. The Pope's Intention for this month of September is "Respect for the planet's resources". He said on the Day of prayer for Creation "We are squeezing out the planet's goods. Squeezing them out as if the earth were an orange. Countries and businesses from the global north have enriched themselves by exploiting the natural resources of the south, creating an ecological debt. Who is going to pay this debt? In addition, multinationals do abroad what they would never be allowed to do in their own countries. It's outrageous. Today, not tomorrow, today we must take care of creation responsibly. Let us pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered but shared in a just and respectful manner. NO to PLUNDERING, YES to SHARING".

Fr Chacko

Reflection: Jesus said "Where two or three come together in my name, I am there with them" (Mt 18:20).

George Anderson was a chaplain at New York's Island prison. One night he was praying with a small group of prisoners over the story of the Good Samaritan. A mentally disturbed prisoner, Richard, was present for the first time. The room was cold and Richard was wrapped in two blankets. The prisoner opposite to him was shivering. At one point, while the group was praying in silence, Richard suddenly got up, walked over to the shivering man and put a blanket around him. Richard's silent action witnessed not only to Jesus' words to us loving others, but also to Jesus' presence among us when we gather in His name. Can I recall a time when I felt moved by Jesus' words or by His presence in a group?

Today's Gospel reading is taken from a chapter of Matthew's Gospel, which is sometimes called the "discourse on the Church" or the "church order" discourse. In this part of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks more directly about matters of Church discipline and order. In today's reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew's Gospel. In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In the first part of the "discourse on the Church" (Matthew 18:1-14), Matthew addresses the Christian community's concerns about rank. Jesus responds to the disciples' question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these "little ones" astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those "little ones" who have strayed.

In today's Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance.

Continuing Prayers from CAFOD for the Season of Creation

Second prayer: Night sky

“We praise you, Lord, for Sister Moon and the Stars, in the heavens you have made them bright, precious and fair.” (St Francis of Assisi)

“We want the forest to remain quiet, the sky to remain clear, the evening darkness to really fall and for the stars to be seen.” (Davi Kopenawa, spokesperson for the Yanomami people of Brazil)

Creator God,
your night sky offers rest and stillness,
yet we flood our cities with light.
Forgive us for our wasteful ways.

Brother Francis, you chose poverty not plenty,
walking lightly on the earth.
May we follow in your path
and reduce the trace we leave.

St Francis, pray for us.

Third prayer: Wind and air

“We praise you, Lord, for Brothers Wind and Air, fair and stormy, all weather’s moods, by which you cherish all that you have made.” (St Francis of Assisi)

“We ourselves are water, air, earth and life of this environment created by God.”
(Guaviare people, Colombia)

Creator God,
we have disturbed the natural cycle,
upset Earth’s fragile balance.
Forgive us for our lack of care.

St Francis, joyful steward of creation,
you lived in peace with nature and with God.
Inspired by your witness,
may we defend our common home.

St Francis, pray for us.

Fernheath Play

The Final draw for the Fernheath Play 100 Club
1st: Josette Cochrane
2nd: Rosa Barone

By now most 100club members should have received an email or letter saying that we are not continuing the 100club monthly draw and thanking them for their support.

The proceeds were very useful and some people even declined to accept their prizes and returned them to us, Thank You,! but , we have lost some members (we never did manage to get up to 100)and have not been able to replace them and we also found administration for this took a lot of time; our admin person only works 10 hours a week and needs to concentrate on other urgent matters during that time. We do still need support for the work at Fernheath Play Centre, so if anyone feels able to help in any way please let me know , but we understand that the parish also needs help and there are so many demands on everyone’s purse in this difficult time.

A big thank you again to all who joined the 100 club.
God bless you, Paddy

Who needs our prayers?

We pray for the sick and suffering and those who suffer from a chronic illness and are unable to go to a Church.
