Centenary Mass (4th October)

This year Stella Maris (formerly known as Apostleship of the Sea) is celebrating 100 years of its support to seafarers, fishers, and their families. We will be holding a live-streamed Mass celebrated by Archbishop Philip Tartaglia of Glasgow. Parishioners, are invited to join online to share in this very special celebration on Sunday 4th October 4th at 3pm. The Mass will be streamed live at www.stellamaris.org.uk/centenarymass.

Dear Parishioner,

Today is Twenty Seventh Sunday of the Ordinary time.

We are in the Month of October, the month of the Most Holy Rosary. On October 7th we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. There will be Rosary in the Lady's Chapel after the mass on every Thursday in CTK, and before the mass on Mondays at St. Bernadette.

We are in such an uncertain time, and Pope's Intention for this month is for Evangelization – The Laity's Mission in the Church. Our Cafod Harvest Fast will be on Friday 9th, and Cafod Harvest Day on 11th Sunday. Let us share our produces or blessings with our neighbours, who are in need.

Stay safe and stay blessed, keeping up the Covid regulations strictly in our daily life.

Fr Chacko

HARVEST

Harvest Sunday is today which is also the Feast of St Francis and marks the end of the Season of Creation. We will celebrate Harvest next weekend, 9th, 10th and 11th October, to link in with CAFOD. Please would bring items for the Foodbank. If you are unable to get to the church, items can be bought at Tesco in Kinson and donated there. Let's try to make a real impact this year as the foodbank needs our support as much as ever.

In today's Gospel, Jesus once again speaks to the priests and elders with a parable. In this parable, the landowner leases his vineyard to tenants and sends his servants to collect the portion of the harvest that the tenants owe to him. Several times the servants are sent to collect payment, and each time they are beaten and killed by the tenants. Finally, the landowner sends his son to collect his rent. The tenants, believing that they will inherit the vineyard if the landowner dies without an heir, plot together and kill the landowner's son. After telling the parable, Jesus questions the chief priests and elders about what the landowner will do to the wicked tenants. They all agree that the landowner will kill the wicked tenants and give the land to new tenants who will pay the rent.

In telling the parable, Jesus is clearly drawing upon Isaiah 5:1-7, which is today's first reading and one that the priests and elders would have known well. Jesus doesn't, therefore, have to explain the symbolism of the parable; the Pharisees would have understood that the vineyard represented Israel, the landowner represented God, the servants represented the prophets, and the bad tenants represented the religious leaders. Yet Jesus nonetheless explains the meaning of the parable for his audience: the Kingdom of God will be taken from the unbelieving and given to the faithful. The chief priests and elders have condemned themselves with their answer to Jesus' question.

Today's Gospel has a parallel in Mark 12:1-12. There are some notable differences, however. In Matthew's version, the religious leaders condemn themselves; in Mark's Gospel, Jesus answers his own question. Matthew names the religious leaders as Pharisees and chief priests. Clearly this Gospel shows the tension that was mounting between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders who thought that his message was dangerous. Matthew's Gospel was written about 70 years after Jesus' death and reflects the conflicts and tensions found in the Christian community for whom Matthew was writing. Many biblical scholars believe that the tension between Matthew's community and their Jewish neighbours can also be heard in today's reading.

CANTICLE OF THE CREATURES

Most High, all-powerful, good Lord,
Yours are the praises, the glory, and the honour, and all blessing.
To You alone, Most High, do they belong,
and no human is worthy to mention Your name.

Praised be You, my Lord, with all Your creatures,
especially Sir Brother Sun,
Who is the day and through whom You give us light.
And he is beautiful and radiant with great splendour;
and bears a likeness of You, Most High One.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars, in heaven You formed them clear and precious and beautiful.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Wind, and through the air, cloudy and serene, and every kind of weather, through whom You give sustenance to Your creatures.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Water, who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Fire, through whom You light the night,
and he is beautiful and playful and robust and strong.

Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with coloured flowers and herbs.

Praised be You, my Lord, through those who give pardon for Your love, and bear infirmity and tribulation.
Blessed are those who endure in peace for by You, Most High, shall they be crowned.

Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Bodily Death, from whom no one living can escape.
Woe to those who die in mortal sin.
Blessed are those whom death will find in Your most holy will,
for the second death shall do them no harm.

Praise and bless my Lord and give Him thanks and serve Him with great humility.

If we read the Canticle of the Creatures it's possible to see how St Francis of Assisi felt and understood that our life is intimately connected with Creation, with God's Creation. God's artistry is in everything, everywhere and we as humanity are part of His creativity. It is within Creation where divinity and humanity became one, when Jesus was amongst us and it is within Creation that God's Holy Spirit dwells with us today.

If we view Creation only in terms of ecology, nature, botany and biology we see ourselves apart from God's Creation, instead of being a part of His Creation – exclusive rather than inclusive. If we view Francis only in terms of a modern day eco-warrior we completely miss his spirituality and the depth of the Franciscan charism.

For Francis, as God is Our Father, he saw family relationships within all Creation. Birds, fire and wind are brothers. The moon, stars and water are sisters and our planet Earth who nourishes us is Mother. Creation is nature viewed with The Creator in mind, creation is fullness, life and community. Creation becomes fraternity.

In the Canticle of the Creatures Francis displays a confident humility, a humility that rejoices, offers praise, gives thanks and shows love to God. There is no demand made of God and no focus on self as can so often be found in modern day "Worship Music". Francis' canticle tells us that creatures and elements reflect in their beauty and strength the blessings that come from God, this is one of the ways He is present with us today.

CAFOD FAST DAY 9TH OCTOBER 2020

This is what the people in the poorest countries are telling CAFOD:

"People must work to eat every day – they are saying they either go outside and die" of Covid 19 or stay inside and starve to death – these are their only choices"

"You could have 10 to 12 people living together in one room 10x15"

"Staying indoors for one full day will mean that the family will go hungry."

"The spread of Coronavirus to countries with poor health systems and limited access to clean water will be devastating."

CAFOD is Channelling its resources to assist by:

- Delivering food to where it is most needed
- Improving hygiene, hand washing and sanitation at the community and household level
- Producing posters, leaflets and messages using megaphones in local languages on risks and prevention
- Funding training for clergy and lay people to educate their parishes and to carry out campaigns
- Providing essential PPE to maternity hospitals

This is how we can support CAFOD's Coronavirus appeal
