

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Hosanna to the Son of David;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,
the King of Israel.
Hosanna in the highest

PSALM GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. 11: 1-10
Glory to you, O Lord.

When they drew near to Jerusalem,
to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, and said to them,
'Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat;
untie it and bring it.
If any one says to you,
"Why are you doing this?" say,
"The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately."
And they went away,
and found a colt tied at the door out in the open street;
and they untied it.
And those who stood there said to them,
'What are you doing, untying the colt?'
And they told them what Jesus had said;
and they let them go.
And they brought the colt to Jesus,
and threw their garments on it;
and he sat upon it.
And many spread their garments on the road,
and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields.
And those who went before and those who followed cried out,
'Hosanna!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming!
Hosanna in the highest!'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE COLLECT

Almighty ever-living God, who as an example of humility for the human race to follow caused our Saviour to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his Resurrection.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue.
So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech.
Each morning he wakes me to hear,
to listen like a disciple.
The Lord has opened my ear.
For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away.
I offered my back to those who struck me,
my cheeks to those who tore at my beard;
I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.
The Lord comes to my help,
so that I am untouched by the insults.
So, too, I set my face like flint;
I know I shall not be shamed.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Mt 21:9

PSALM

Ps. 21:8-9. 17-20. 23-24. R.v2

R) My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
let him release him if this is his friend.' (R)

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet.
I can count every one of my bones. (R)

They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me! (R)

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians 2:6-11

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are,
and being as all men are,
he was humbler yet,
even to accepting death,
death on a cross.
But God raised him high
and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings
in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mt 17:5

Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory:
Christ was humbler yet,
even to accepting death, death on a cross.
But God raised him high
and gave him the name which is above all names.
Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory.

THE PASSION

Mark 14:1 - 15:47

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Through the Passion of your Only Begotten Son, O Lord, may our reconciliation with you be near at hand, so that, though we do not merit it by our own deeds, yet by this sacrifice made once for all,
we may feel already the effects of your mercy.
Through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Mt 26:42

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Nourished with these sacred gifts, we humbly beseech you, O Lord, that, just as through the death of your Son you have brought us to hope for what we believe, so by his Resurrection
you may lead us to where you call.
Through Christ our Lord.

Our Faith on Sunday

GOSPEL REFLECTION

The Palm Sunday procession was, as St. Matthew tells us, the fulfillment of a prophecy of Zechariah (9:9) "...your king comes to you, he is humble, he rides on a donkey". Today we hear the crowds shouting, "Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna!" It is a true fulfillment, as we know. Jesus is the physical descendant of King David; the One promised by all the preparations of the Old Covenant; preparations covering hundreds of years and the history of a whole people. In the light of that history, Jesus, a man, of no particular importance humanly speaking, riding on a donkey, "a colt that no-one has yet ridden", seems almost a travesty of what has been promised! Psalm 2 proclaims Yahweh saying, "I myself have anointed my king on Zion my holy mountain... You are my son, today have I fathered you... I shall give you the nations as your birthright..." We can partly sympathize with the Pharisees, who, as St. Luke records, tell Jesus to calm his followers down. But the Scriptures are only understood with Faith and humility and Our Lord criticized the scribes and Pharisees many times for their pride and lack of Faith. The disciples and the crowd seem to have been much better prepared by their Sabbath attendances at the synagogue.

Easter Triduum

The term triduum means 'three days.' The three days are counted as the Hebrews counted their days, from dusk to dusk. Therefore, the three days of the Easter triduum are from dusk on Holy Thursday to dusk on Good Friday (day one), dusk on Good Friday to dusk on Holy Saturday (day two), and dusk on Holy Saturday to dusk on Easter Sunday (day three). Each of those days 'tells' a different part of the story of Jesus' saving action. We look at the East Triduum as on single celebration that lasts for three days. We cannot separate the death of Jesus from his resurrection. We do not spend all of the three days in church, but at various times during those days, we are called to church to gather and remember together.

Holy Thursday (Maundy Thursday)

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus instituted the sacrament of the Eucharist. We hear his admonition "Do this, in remembrance of me." And then we have the wonderful example of the service to which we are called when Jesus, who is Lord and master, takes a basin of water and washes the feet of his apostles ending with the words "What I just did was to give you an example: as I have done, so you must do."

Mass of Lord's Supper 8.00pm

Good Friday

On this afternoon we listen and remember how Jesus suffered and died for our sins. After the Passion we are reminded that there are many people in the world who need our prayers. Then a cross, the symbol of our salvation, is brought forward for us to venerate. This is our opportunity to humble ourselves before the awesome saving action of Christ. After veneration we participate in a simple reception of the Eucharist and then leave church again in silence to continue our prayer and fasting at home and to return on Saturday evening for the Easter Vigil.

Stations of the Cross St Bernadette's 10.00am Liturgy of the Passion and Veneration of the Cross Christ the King 3.00pm

Holy Saturday

We wait for nightfall before gathering for this vigil service of light. The lighting of the fire and of the Easter candle go back to rites that long precede Christianity. The candle, carried with loving reverence and lyrically praised in word and song, is a sign of Christ 'the light of the world,' and celebrates the victory of light over darkness.

Dear Parishioners,

Today, is PALM SUNDAY !!!!!.

Thanks be to God, that this year we can get together in our parish to celebrate this HOLY WEEK beginning with this Palm Sunday celebrations keeping up the Covid related regulations. I recall my last year's Palm Sunday, a palm each being placed on the seats in the church, and as I said my Holy Mass in my loneliness and desolation, I had every one of my parishioners present through the visible palms on their seats in front of me. We will celebrate all the Triduum days of Passion, Death and the Resurrection of the Lord, though the pandemic situation will dim its grandiosity.

I appreciate and encourage the initiative by some of our parishioners under the leadership of Sr. Michele doing a "A Parish Reflection for Holy Week.

Let us keep in our prayers Bishop Mark and the priests of the Diocese as we celebrate the Chrism Mass in the Cathedral and the Feast of the Last Supper of the Lord.

In his book "Who is Christ" the author Antony Padovano writes "The suffering of the cross is not meant for itself but for something else. Christ does not suffer because suffering in itself a value but because love without restraint requires suffering...We are saved not by the physical death of Jesus but by the absoluteness of a love which did not count death too high a price".

- What is one thing I have done for Christ?
- What is one thing I am doing for Christ.?
- What is one thing I can do for Christ?

"Unhappy is death without the love of the Saviour, Unhappy is love without the death of the Saviour" (St. Francis de Sales)

May God bless you all from His abundance. In the meantime, stay safe and be blessed!!!!

Fr Chacko
