

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

THE COLLECT

O God, who show the light of your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honour. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets,' Amos replied to Amaziah. 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Ps 84:9-14. R.v8

R) Let us see, O Lord, your mercy and give us your saving help.

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people. His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. (R)

Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. (R)

The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit. Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians For shorter form, read between [...] 1:3-14

[Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth]

Cf. Ps 16:15

And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came. Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you too have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Cf. Eph 1:17-18
May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of your mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 6:7-13

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Look upon the offerings of the Church, O Lord, as she makes her prayer to you, and grant that, when consumed by those who believe, they may bring ever greater holiness. Through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Jn 6:57

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Having consumed these gifts, we pray, O Lord, that, by our participation in this mystery, its saving effects upon us may grow. Through Christ our Lord.

Our Faith on Sunday

GOSPEL REFLECTION

The instructions given by Christ today, to his disciples, we see taken up by his saints. Saints give their 'all'; they hold nothing back. Our new English 'Venerable' (the stage before 'blessed'), Fr. Ignatius Spencer, the Passionist, is an example. Fr. Ignatius was born the Honourable George Spencer, youngest son of the Second Earl Spencer. He had a comfortable and well educated youth. He became first an Anglican clergyman, but his love of truth gradually led him into the Catholic Church and he became a priest. Eventually, through his friendship with Blessed Dominic Barberi, he joined the Passionists. His years of priesthood are a story of constant and exhausting travelling – England, Ireland, Germany, Belgium – giving missions and retreats and begging for alms. A contemporary wrote of him, "His great charity to the poor and wandering beggars was unbounded.

At times he gave them all the money he had, and stripped himself of his clothes to give them to the distressed; and when he had nothing to give, he would thank God that he had only His holy truth to impart. His house was always open for the distressed." "How beautiful it would be," he was heard to say, "to die in a ditch, alone and unnoticed." And God fulfilled his longing and granted that prayer!

EVANGELII GAUDIUM (JOY OF THE GOSPEL)

BROTHERS AND SISTERS ALL PANDEMICS AND OTHER CALAMITIES IN HISTORY

36. Unless we recover the shared passion to create a community of belonging and solidarity worthy of our time, our energy and our resources, the global illusion that misled us will collapse and leave many in the grip of anguish and emptiness. Nor should we naively refuse to recognize that "obsession with a consumerist lifestyle, above all when few people are capable of maintaining it, can only lead to violence and mutual destruction". The notion of "every man for himself" will rapidly degenerate into a free-for-all that would prove worse than any pandemic.

St Teresa's Way of Perfection* TRUENESS OF HEART

'Let the righteous rejoice in the Lord, and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart give glory!' For now the Lord has risen, now he has ascended to heaven, now he has shown that here is another life, now it is evident that his counsels, in which he lay concealed in the depth of your heart, were not empty, for his Blood was shed to be the price of the redeemed. Now all things are made clear, all things have been proclaimed and believed. And under the whole of heaven ' Let the righteous rejoice in the Lord, and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart give glory!'

But who are the upright in heart? Those who endure all things in this life, not attributing them to senseless chance, but to God's plan as medicine for us. Those who do not presume too much concerning their own righteousness, which makes them believe that their sufferings are unjust and that God is therefore unjust, because others who sin more do not suffer more . . .

God displeases you, but you are pleased with yourself, and so you have a crooked heart. And what is worse, you want to make God's heart crooked in accordance with your own, so that he does what you want, whereas you ought to do what he wishes you to do. What then? Do you wish to bend God's heart, which is always true, to match the depravity of your own? How much better it would be to correct your heart by his righteousness.

A MESSAGE FROM FR CHACKO

My Dear Parishioners,

Today, we celebrate Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. !

My congratulations and prayers for all our children who received Jesus in Holy Communion last weekend and especially yesterday. Though unable to be present with you all currently, feel myself close to you in my prayers. May Jesus be your best friend in life. Let us keep them all in our prayers and may they continue to live and do encourage them to live in the grace that they are in today.

My sincere thanks to all the catechism teachers, and the parents who were behind these children as they prepared themselves for this great day in their life. May the Lord bless you all!

I sincerely thank Fr.Paul Keys who celebrated Mass for the First Holy Communion children on Saturday and to Fr.Tony who says Mass this weekend in our parish churches.

Let us remember and pray for Pope Francis who was admitted into Rome's Gamelli Hospital for an intestinal surgery and is now convalescing normally. May the good Lord protect him and be safely back in his Petrine ministry.

I for myself, am convalescing and am speedily recovering to normalcy, though it might take few weeks more for me to be on my legs without a walker. Thanks a lot for all your prayers and wishes.

Jesus says in today's gospel "Don't take anything with you on the trip, except a walking stick". This verse leads me to think: How simple and uncluttered should be my lifestyle? And how dependant am I on "things"?

Half the confusion of the world comes from not knowing how little we need.
(Admiral Richard Byrd)

May God bless you all from His abundance. In the meantime, stay safe and be blessed!!!!

Fr Chacko
