

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf. Ps 65:1-2

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

THE COLLECT

May your people exult for ever, O God, in renewed youthfulness of spirit, so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption, we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

5:27-32. 40-41

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning,' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be a leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Ps. 29:2.4-6.11-13.R.v2

R) I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. (R)

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. (R)

The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

5:11-14

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation - everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATIONAlleluia, alleluia!

Cf. Lk 24:32

Lord Jesus, explain the scriptures to us.
Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Shorter form

John 21:1-14

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
Glorify to you, O Lord.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Receive, O Lord, we pray, these offerings of your exultant Church, and, as you have given her cause for such great gladness, grant also that the gifts we bring may bear fruit in perpetual happiness. Through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf. Jn 21: 12-13

Jesus said to his disciples: Come and eat.
And he took bread and gave it to them, alleluia

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Look with kindness upon your people, O Lord, and grant, we pray, that those you were pleased to renew by eternal mysteries may attain in their flesh the incorruptible glory of the resurrection. Through Christ our Lord.

THE PARISH OF THE HOLY FAMILY, BOURNEMOUTH

incorporating the churches of Christ the King, Kinson & St Bernadette's, Ensbury Park

The month of May, dedicated to Mary, is a fitting time to begin to recite the rosary daily—POPE FRANCIS

According to tradition, St Dominic was given the Rosary in 1521 by our Blessed mother. It is one of our greatest and powerful prayers prayed by millions of Catholics daily and for centuries.

Pope Francis is now encouraging the faithful to pray the Rosary during this month of May and notes this tradition of praying at home with our families. He has proposed that everyone 'rediscover the beauty of praying the Rosary at home' in the month of May making the most of this opportunity. He says 'the key to doing this is always simplicity and it is easy also on the internet to find good models of prayers to follow.' He has added to extra prayers to be said also and these can be found on vaticannews.va /letter on the month of may.

Our world needs these prayers and Mary has promised us great things if we pray the Rosary each day.

In the Holy Family parish, we will pray the Rosary together before the masses on Monday, Tuesday and at the weekend. Please join us. We also ask that as a Parish, we join together at 7.30pm EACH DAY and pray at home with our families or alone knowing that other people in the Parish will be praying with us too.

Dear Parishioners,

Today is 1st May, on this day we celebrate third Sunday after Easter.

This date is also International Workers Day and believed to reflect St. Joseph as the patron saint of workers. St. Joseph was known for his work and even after his death he was called "the carpenter," as if it was his name (Mark 6:3). His work was a badge of honour as in his native Jewish culture, manual labour was held in high esteem.

It is also important to remember that each and every little job that a person does is necessary and valuable to society. Together, all of humankind builds society, making it a better, safer place with each passing year.

I send you warm wishes on behalf of Fr. Chacko on 1st May as it is the day to celebrate your dedication and hard work which has helped our Parish grow. Wishing you a wonderful and Happy Labour Day. May your life is filled with blessings and happiness.

Reflection: God in search of man, even when man tries to evade Him.

Today's Gospel passage shows us the rehabilitation of Peter, who denied Jesus three times in the courtyard of Caiaphas, repented, and then received Primacy in the Church from Jesus.

Let me explain it with a beautiful story.

A well-known speaker began a seminar by holding up a £20 note. He asked the audience, "Who would like to have this £20 note?" Hands started going up. He then said, "I am going to give this £20 to one of you, but first, let me do this." He proceeded to crumple the pound note up. He then asked, "Who still wants it?" The hands remained in the air. "Well," he added, "What if I do this?" He dropped it to the floor and proceeded to grind it with his shoe. He picked it up, crumpled and dirty. "Now who still wants it?" Still a few hands were raised because the note had not decreased in value. It was still worth £20!!

Many times in our lives, we feel crumpled and ground into the dirt by the decisions we make and the circumstances that come our way. We feel as though we are worthless. No matter what has happened to us, however, we never lose our value in God's eyes. The worth of our lives comes not in what we do or who we are, but from Him to whom we belong! We are special – let us never forget it! This is the lesson of today's Gospel, which tells us how Jesus chose the repentant Peter to be the leader of his Church, even though Peter had denied him three times. God always in search of us even if we avoid Him.

God bless! Live Jesus !

Fr. Babu Francis

BREAKFAST WITH JESUS

They had fished all night and had caught nothing. But at His word, they tried again..

The result?

Breakfast with the Lord on the beach.

How many times do we want to give up because we have 'got nothing'?

How many times do we forget to ask for God's help even just for the day?

From today, lets have breakfast with Jesus. Invite Him to be with us at the start of our day and to stay throughout.....

PRAYER FOR PEACE

God of peace and Justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine.
We pray for peace and laying down of weapons,
we pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your spirit of comfort would be near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen

SYNODAL PROCESS

The team would like to encourage you to take a copy of the results and collation from the recent synodal process that are at the back of the churches.

The team have done stirling work getting this together. There are key points that are being considered for the way forward for us all, especially after this time of Covid.

Last Saturday, my Mum (Miriam), Grandma (Jenny) and I attended the Catholic Charismatic Conference 'Stay Awake' in Weymouth. Highlights of the day for us were the Praise and Worship, then the Mass in the afternoon.

The hall was full of Easter joy!

There were streams for children to attend from starting school age through to Confirmation age and leaving school age; they enjoyed various activities while we listened to the keynote talks, attended the workshops or spent quiet times in the beautiful prayer room. We enjoyed every moment of the day, both the spiritual side and the 'fun' side - homemade cakes were available all day and pizza to finish after Mass!

We are already looking forward to attending again next year! (from Jess Grist)
