

10TH JULY 2022

15TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME (C)

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf. Ps 16:15
As for me, in justice I shall behold your face;
I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

THE COLLECT

O God, who show the light of your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honour. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.'

'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

PSALM Ps. 68:14.17.30-31.33-34.36-37.R.cf.v33

R) Seek the Lord, you who are poor, and your hearts will revive.

This is my prayer to you, my prayer for your favour. In your great love, answer me, O God, with your help that never fails: Lord, answer, for your love is kind; in your compassion, turn towards me. (R)

As for me in my poverty and pain let your help, O God, lift me up. I will praise God's name with a song; I will glorify him with thanksgiving. (R)

The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive; for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains. (R)

For God will bring help to Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah. The sons of his servants shall inherit it; those who love his name shall dwell there. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignties, Powers – all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head.

As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Jn 10:27
The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says the Lord, I know them and they follow me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 10:25-37

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.
There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus, 'do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one, who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Look upon the offerings of the Church, O Lord, as she makes her prayer to you, and grant that, when consumed by those who believe, they may bring ever greater holiness.

Through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf. Ps 83: 4-5

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Having consumed these gifts, we pray, O Lord, that, by our participation in this mystery, its saving effects upon us may grow. Through Christ our Lord.

ST BENEDICT—11th JULY

Benedict was born in 480, a son of a nobleman. He was sent to Rome for education. During this time he watched his fellow students, who had everything—wealth, youth and education, ruin their lives with vice. Afraid for his soul, Benedict fled, gave up his inheritance and went to live in a small village as a hermit. The devil came to him and tempted him but Benedict resisted and continued to pray. Local monks heard of his holiness and asked him to be their leader but he was too strict. One evening they tried to poison him but as he took the cup and said the blessing, it smashed. He left and started monasteries elsewhere, setting up the first community.

It is then that he wrote his well known book 'The Rule of St Benedict' which is still used today and is one of the most influential in Western Christendom. Having studied 'speech and persuasive talking at school, he realised that it wasn't enough to speak the words of God but to use their power to reach up to God. Benedict believed that 'One does not live on bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of God!' (Matthew 4:4) so every day, he read and recited psalms and sacred scripture allowing these words to fight against temptation. St. Benedict was known to work many miracles using the power of the Holy Cross.

Saint Benedict became known for his power over the Devil, with the Holy Cross as his efficacious instrument to make the Devil flee. The St. Benedict medal is based on this tradition and has his powerful prayer—May the Holy Cross be my light, may the dragon never be my guide. Begone satan, never tempt me with your vanities. What you offer me is evil, drink the poison yourself.

Today, is the Fifteenth Sunday of the Ordinary time.

It is Seafarers Sunday. Stella Maris or Apostleship of the sea provides spiritual and welfare support for seafarers. Today please remember seafarers and fishers in your prayers. Thanks God for them and the vital role they play in our lives, often working in difficult and hazardous situations. Please pray for Stella Maris chaplains and volunteers, who ensure that seafarers will always have a friend in port.

Let us remember in our prayers Deacon Andrew Marlborough from Poole who will be ordained a priest in our Diocese on next Saturday.

This is the Prayer we are requested to pray daily after Mass:

"Lord God, You are our Eternal Shepherd and Guide. In your mercy, grant to the Diocese of Plymouth a shepherd who will walk in your ways, and whose watchful care will bring us your blessing. We ask this in the name of Christ our Lord."

Reflection: Praising the Good Samaritan's Kindness Jesus said " Go....and do the same" (Lk.10:37)

Glamour Magazine for December 1991 carried an editorial about a Lady in a red car. She drove up to the Bay Bridge toll booth and said, "I am paying for the next six cars" As each car stopped, the driver was told, "The Lady in the red car paid your toll. Have a nice day" The lady in the red car was inspired by a sentence penned by Anne Herbert: "Practice random kindness and senseless acts of beauty".

Anne believes that "random kindness" is capable of generating a tidal wave, just as "random violence" is. May be , that's why Anne's lovely sentence is starting to show up in lots of places. It awakens something deep inside the human heart.

How might I "Go.....and do the same"?

God bless you all !!!

Fr Chacko

God of peace and Justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine.

We pray for peace and laying down of weapons, we pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your spirit of comfort would be near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen

It is important that our parish finds new and relevant ways to engage with parishioners and neighbours. Our religious observance is at the heart of parish life, but sometimes we need to add communal activities where people can come together as friends to experience our parish as a welcoming place. We are looking for suggestions and volunteers to move forward the social life of our parish – if you can help, please make contact with the Parish Pastoral Council.

The next meeting is Tuesday 19th July and two items we will be discussing will be social activities & building maintenance. So please send any comments to

WE NEED YOU !

OUR CHILDREN NEED YOU !

Children's Liturgy offers the children of our parish an opportunity to listen and respond to the Gospel at an age appropriate level but we need people to help for it to continue. If you feel you can share faith with children and help tell the stories from the Gospels (training on what to do is given) with all the materials provided, please contact Jo at CtK or Miriam at StB

We cannot provide this wonderful experience for our children without help— so please consider coming to talk to us

Holy Family Parish

Saturday 16th July 3pm
RSVP by this weekend on the list at the back of churches

Thank you to those who supported the Diocesan Quiz last Friday at St B's
The Holy Family parish came 2nd in the diocese!
Thanks to Mike, our quiz master for organising the evening.
£60 was raised for the Plymouth Catholic Children's society

Thank you to the Catholic Street Evangelisation group who have left rosaries & prayer cards at the back of the churches.

Please take 1 or 2 or 3 or 4 and spread the Good news as Jesus told us to do..... His command is 'Go!'
'Go!' means we cannot wait for the world that needs Christ to come to our door;
'Go!' means reaching out to those who need to know Christ!
