

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
O God of Israel.

Ps 129: 3-4

THE COLLECT

May your grace, O Lord, we pray,
at all times go before us and follow after
and make us always determined to carry out good works.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

A reading from the second book of the Kings

5:14-17

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.*PSALM

Ps 97:1-4. R.cf.v2

R) The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

Sing a new song to the Lord
for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm
have brought salvation. (R)

The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel. (R)

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.
Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy.

2:8-13

Remember the Good News that I carry, 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal – but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on:

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.
If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him.
If we disown him, then he will disown us.
We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful,
for he cannot disown his own self.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION*Alleluia, alleluia!

Cf. Jn 6:33.68

Your words are spirit, Lord,
and they are life:
you have the message of eternal life.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 17:11-19

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.*PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Accept, O Lord, the prayers of your faithful with the sacrificial offerings,
that, through these acts of devotedness,
we may pass over to the glory of heaven.
Through Christ our Lord.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf. Ps 33: 11

The rich suffer want and go hungry,
but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord,
that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son,
so you may make us sharers of his divine nature.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

ST WILFRED— 12th October

Born in Northumberland in 634, St. Wilfrid was educated at Lindisfarne and then spent some time in Lyons and Rome. He is the patron saint of many towns in the UK.

St. Wilfrid was an outstanding person of his time, extremely capable and had unbounded courage, remaining firm in his convictions despite running afoul of civil and ecclesiastical authorities. He helped bring the discipline of the English Church into line with that of Rome. He was also a dedicated pastor and a zealous and skilled missionary;

He was appointed Bishop of York and after some difficulty finally took possession of his See in 669. He laboured zealously and founded many monasteries of the Benedictine Order, but he was obliged to appeal to Rome in order to prevent the subdivision of his diocese by St. Theodore, Archbishop of Canterbury. While waiting for the case to be decided, he was forced to go into exile, and worked hard and long to evangelize the heathen south Saxons until his recall in 686.

In 691, he had to retire again to the Midlands until Rome once again vindicated him. In 703, he resigned his post and retired to his monastery at Ripon where he spent his remaining time in prayer & penitential practices, until his death in 709.

St Wilfred, pray for us to have the same courage as you when defending our faith. Amen

Dear Parishioners, Today is Twenty eighth Sunday of the ordinary time.

Today is Prison Week Sunday, which is a time to pray for the Prisoners and their families during these days of 9th - 15th October.

We have Cafod Harvest Fast Day on Friday 7th, and our parish celebrate Harvest festival and mass on 8th Saturday at St. Bernadette. Thanks to everyone who cooperated and worked behind it. God bless everyone.

Our school children had a Harvest Mass Day of Thanksgiving on Thursday, attended also by parishioners, and collected a lot of food for the Food Bank in Kinson.

We welcome Bruce, Son of Lloyd and Zoe, a new bud in our parish family who will be baptized next Saturday.

May we continue to pray for our Diocese, looking for a new Bishop, and continue our usual prayer for peace in Ukraine

Reflection

“Ten lepers shouted to Jesus “have pity on us” ...On their way back they were made clean. But only one returned to thank Jesus” Lk 17:13-14”

Jermaine Gardner was born with one eye, no nose, and a misshapen face. Doctors said he would have major physical and mental health difficulties. His mother wanted him to die. At four year's old , he was sitting at the lobby of Medical City, Dallas, playing a “Thank You” piano concert for 200 hospital employees. His musical talent was discovered accidentally, when he was still a baby and he now has a memorized repertoire of nearly 200 classical compositions and has played with world famous pianist Stevie Wonder.

The four year old's “Thank You” concert makes me ask, How grateful am I for what I have and how I do show it?

“Happy are those who grieve not for what they have not, but give thanks for what they do have”

Email from Cardinal Vincent Nichols to everyone

Dear all,

Earlier this evening I was privileged to be part of an Audience with King Charles. He invited senior faith leaders to Buckingham Palace in order to address us. I attach a copy of his remarks to us, which, I am sure, are stated at this point to create the context of events and remarks that will follow. This speech is well worth reading.

In my personal conversation with the King, I assured him that the Catholic community had continued, during these days of mourning, in heartfelt prayer for his mother. He expressed his gratitude for this. And then, turning back to me, he asked me to ensure that the Catholics of England and Wales knew of his thanks and gratitude for these prayers.

I am passing this on to you in case there are ways in which His Majesty's message might be conveyed to the people of our parishes.

With every good wish,

+Vincent

Prisons Week 9 - 15 October

Prisoners week is a time to think about how we are serving those affected by imprisonment. Prisoners and families often find themselves on the margins of our society. Yet Jesus challenges us with His words:

'I was in prison and you came to me...'

A candle will be lit for prisoners and their families at the end of all Masses this weekend.

PRISONERS SUNDAY

The start of Prisoners week

Lord, you offer freedom to all people. We pray for those in prison. Break the bonds of fear & isolation that exist. Support with your love prisoners and their families and friends, prison staff and all who care. Heal those who have been wounded by the actions of others, especially the victims of crime. Help us to forgive one another, to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly together with Christ, in his strength & in his Spirit, now and every day. Amen

WORLD MENTAL HEALTH DAY —2022

Monday 10th October is this years World Mental Health Day. This year's theme is, 'Make mental health and wellbeing for all a global priority'. Stigma & discrimination continue to be a barrier and it is important that mental health is recognised, promoted and protected. This day is an opportunity to discuss mental health, raise awareness and remind us how crucial it is to talk to others, reaching out if you are struggling. If you need help or support or know someone else, please contact
